

Introduction to bees and beekeeping Spring management workshop & field day

Sunday, October 7th
Swanpool Cinema,
Midland Hwy,
Swanpool
8:30 – 4pm
Cost: $50 including
Morning tea & Lunch

North Eastern Apiarists' Association Inc – for advancement of apiculture

Program will include;

- Spring Management - optimising the opportunities of the season including hands on manipulation of hives
- Assessing colony health, queen performance – reading the brood
- Honey bee nutrition – anticipating colony needs for nectar and pollen
- Pests and disease – identification and management options
- Honey harvesting for small operations
- Hardware assembly, small scale extracting, flow hive discussion and more!
- Floral resources of NE Victoria

Redpaths Beekeeping Supplies will be in attendance on the day and will take orders prior to the workshop. Visit www.redpaths.com.au Participants are asked to bring with them any protective equipment they own and a chair for seating outdoors. Veils will be available for purchase on the day. Please bring own wide brimmed hat.

Note: numbers will be limited – participants are advised to register early with payment. RSVP by Monday 24th, September – Secretary - 0478 225 081
To register please complete the form below and send with payment to The Secretary, NEAA 1152 Banksdale Rd Hansonville, 3675 or if paying by EFT send email to info@neaa.com.au

Please detach and return with payment

ABN: 28 302 428 414

Reg' No: A0031341A

Registration Fee:

$50/pp x

Date: ____/____/____

No's Attending:

Optional NEAA Membership ($25):

$

Total Registration Enclosed:

$ _____

Name: _____

Address: _____

Town: _____ Postcode: _____

Email: _____

Phone/Mobile: _____

Payment options (please tick)

Electronic Funds Transfer to
North East Apiarists Association

BSB: 803 070 Acc#: 0007855

WAW Credit Union

Cheque made payable to the
North East Apiarists Association

Please advise any dietary requirements to info@neaa.com.au